CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the seller cannot decide the said dispute.

II. No person to advance less than 6*d.*; above ten shillings, 1*s.*; above five pounds, 2*s.* 6*d.*; and so on.

III. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10*s.* in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.

IV. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expense, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON and HODGE will have the option of reselling the lots uncleared either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.

V. The books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.

VI. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates.

VII. No IMPERFECT BOOK will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.

VIII. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.

IX. Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the reselling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble servants,

32 AMERICA. The Dog's Congress, in three Chantlets

AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT 8*vo*. SÆC. xviii, circa 1778

A dirty Poem, much in the style of Dean Swift, intended to ridicule the Americans when they first revolted. It concludes:—

What, if the Printer should refuse
His favourite Rebels to accuse?
Why then I'l to another go,
And deem the wretch his country's foe,
Fitter for exile in that place
Where Parricide is no disgrace,
Than here within his Native Land
In infamy to stain his hand,
And sever its united states,
With Lee, with Washington, and Gates
Whose blood-stain'd swords annoy much less Than the black poison of his Press.

33 Ames (J.) Collection of Old English Printers' Marks, Rebusses, Devices, &c. various sheets in a portfolio 4*to*.

162 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA
MANUSCRIPT ON FINE VELLUM, with illuminated capitals (several with MINIATURES) 4*to.* SÆC. xiv.
This fine Bible came from the Library of the famous Abbey of Tongerlo, in Flanders. It appears from an inscription at the end of the Table to have belonged to the celebrated Martyr, JOHN HUSS. "Ista biblia est fratris Johannis vvsz (Huss) de curia Ordinis Minorum." This Manuscript has the verse in Matt. xxiv, "Duo in lecto, &c."

163 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, CUM PROLOGIS S. HIERONYMI
SPLENDID MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, with painted capitals, morocco super extra, joints, gilt gaufré edges, by C. Murton folio. SÆC. xiv
This very valuable Manuscript is very important, as, besides the Psalter of St. Jerome, it contains the "vetus Versio Italica Psalmorum," in a parallel column, and includes the apocryphal Psalm (CLI), supposed to have been written by David to celebrate his slaying of Goliath. It also contains in Matthew xxiv the rejected verse "Duo in lecto, &c.

164 BIBLA SACRA LATINA

A BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, in a very distinct but small handwriting, ornamented with an immense number of capitals, illuminated in gold and colours, several of them containing elegant MINIATURES in the best style of early German ornamentation, splendidly bound in red velvet, elegantly embroidered with gold, having on obverse of cover a painting representing Saint Elizabeth of Hungary, Duchess of Thuringen, relieving a cripple, covered with talc, and surrounded by a star formed of crystals, and on the reverse an antique ivory plaque, on which is carved a representation of the Holy Family, broad morocco joints, covered with gold tooling, watered silk linings, gilt edges, over which is an elegantly carved and perforated wainscot cover, lined with red silk, the whole being enclosed in a mahogany box, lettered like a book folio. SÆC. XIV-XV

165 PISTLES AND GOSPELS, WITH HOMILIES, having an alphabetical Index prefixed

MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (folio 33 deficient) ornamented with 6 MINIATURES AND BORDERS IN GOLD AND COLOURS, bound in embroidered silk, protected by gilt silver edges and clasps 4*to.* SÆC. XV

The version is very similar to Wiclif's, with merely a few verbal alterations. The first miniature represents various Saints singing, surrounded by a border, in which the Story of Jonas. The second illumination is David praying. The third miniature is a beautiful painting of the Madonna with the Child at the breast. The fourth painting is that of a Saint holding a book to a kneeling Monk. The fifth miniature (in the early English style) represents the Angel announcing the Resurrection of Jesus to the three Maries. The sixth painting, within an elegant flowered border, is a representation of the Madonna and Child by a Flemish artist. For this important Manuscript Mr. Offor refused £300 offered by the late Mr. Lea Wilson, the well-known collector of Bibles and Testaments.

MANUSCRIPT, WITH 27 DRAWINGS, supposed by Mr. Offor (see his long autograph account in front) to be the genuine production of W. Tyndale, (the first sketch, "Christ bound," is, however, by Parmegiano), illustrated with two portraits of Tyndale (india proof and coloured), a portrait of Henry VII, from the Basiologia, and a woodcut of Tyndale's Martyrdom, splendidly bound "in morocco, g. e. flexible boards and lined with morocco inside, hand tooled, with rich border in tooling, silk fly leaves, &c. &c." (see C. Murton's bill inside) and fitted into an antique oak cover, elegantly carved with representations of Charity and Justice, in a box covered in russia

Mr. Offor (see his note) considered this THE PEARL OF HIS COLLECTION, and appears to have been deeply offended with Mr. Anderson (Annals of the Bible, vol. II, Appendix, p. iii) for presuming to suggest 1562 as the more probable date of its manufacture. Mr. Offor devotes 13 pages to prove Mr. Anderson wrong, and seems to lay great stress on the Paper being of the Period, asserting that the Water-mark (the Hand and Star) shows it to be of the reign of Henry VII. This however is not the fact, as this same mark was used long before that period, as far back as Richard II, and continued in use (in Holland and Flanders) into the Eighteenth Century. Even had this been a fact, would any one contemplating a fraud have used modern paper? What was more easy than to obtain old? The numerous facsimiles in the present Collection, many of them executed on old paper, so as almost to defy detection except by experts, prove how readily materials of this sort can be obtained when required. That the writing on the back of the drawings is much later than the delineations, any one used to Manuscripts would have detected at once, and had Mr. Anderson assigned the Nineteenth Century as the date of the Calligraphy, he would, perhaps, have been nearer the mark. The volume, undoubtedly a great curiosity and well worthy of attention, is, therefore, sold as it is, and must be purchased on the buyer's own judgment as to its being genuine or not.

241 Bibel. Dat oude ende dat nieuvve testament, 2 vol.
black letter, coloured woodcuts, fine copy in old Dutch calf folio. Antwerpen, 1526

This is the first edition of the Protestant Belgic Bible, printed by Jacob van Liesveldt, who was condemned and beheaded at Antwerp, for asserting in one of the Annotations that "the salvation of mankind proceeds from Christ alone." It is of extraordinary rarity owing probably to the various Proclamations issued at the time requiring all High Dutch, Flemish, Walloon or French Versions of the Scriptures to be brought in and burned, it being announced that whosoever retained them after this promulgation should forfeit life and goods.

242 Jona auszgelegt durch M. Luther, 1526—Habacuc auszgelegt durch M. Luther, wants title and first leaf, 1526

245 Biblia Latina edita per J. Rudelium, woodcuts, very rare but wants title and dedicatory epistle folio. Coloniæ, 1527

This is one of the rarest of the Roman Catholic Latin Bibles, having been, according to Clement and Bunemann, rigidly suppressed. Rudel was the first to add the third Book of Maccabees to an edition of the Latin Bible.

246 Biblia Latina, per J. Rudelium. Another edition, woodcuts folio. ib. 1529

247 Bibel naerstelijck ghecorrigeert (Old Testament and Apocrypha), 4 vol. woodcuts

262 Erasmus (D.) Exhortation to the diligent studye of scripture, made by Erasmus Roterodamus. And trāslated in to inglissh. An exposition in to the seventh chaptre of the first pistle to the Corinthians black letter, a few letters in the sixth leaf in facsimile and 7 letters supplied in ink on last leaf, else very good copy in morocco extra, g. e.
small 8vo. At Malborow in the londe of Hesse, M.D.XXIX. XX daye Junii. By my Hans Luft.

This very rare volume was denounced in a proclamation of Henry VIII, as "contaynyng many detestable errours and dampnable opynyons." The Translation and Exposition were probably made by Friar Roy, if we give credit to Sir Thomas More, who ascribes it to his pen, and not by Tyndale as asserted by Anderson in his Annals of the Bible, vol. I, p. 136, and p. 210 note 3.

263 Bible (Sainct) en Françoys, woodcuts black letter, a few leaves mended in the margins, morocco super extra, g. e. folio. Anvers, par M. Lempereur, 1530

This is the second edition of the famous translation by J. Lefevre d'Estaples, and is of very great rarity, having been strictly prohibited and rigidly suppressed.

black letter, imperfect, but has titles and last leaf folio. Wittemberg, Hans Lufft, 1534
A portion of the first complete edition of Luther's Version. The Apocrypha appeared herein for the first time.

272 NEWE TESTAMENT. Tyndale's Version with Prologes (L. W. 4, i. e. Lea Wilson's Catalogue, No. 4) black letter, on yellow paper, stained after printing, woodcuts
EXCESSIVELY RARE, but first title, Tyndale's Prefaces and last leaf facsimiled, else good sound copy (6 in. by $3\frac{5}{8}$) blue morocco, g. e. by C. Murton small 8vo. Antwerp, by Martin Emperour, 1534
On the fly-leaves of this copy Mr. Offor has various MS. Memoranda, pointing out passages omitted or added, &c. He also states, "An imperfect copy of this book was sold in Chr. Anderson's Library, April, 1852, for £116."

273 Newe Testament newlye corrected. Tyndale's Version, with Prologes and Notes, woodcuts of the first three Evangelists black letter, EXTREMELY RARE, but title and address of Wm. Tindale, "Yet once more to the Christian reader," (in which he complains of Joye's alterations) placed at end (5 leaves), are in facsimile; all the leaves between Xx 8 and ✠ i (containing from "So wyl James," in the Prologe to the Epistle to S. James and Judas to the end of Revelations, as well as commencement of table) and last leaf of Declaracion of the Table are wanting, else a good sound copy, believed to be otherwise complete, although, as Tyndale's Preface commences on D i, an Exhortacion and a Calendar may be likewise deficient, but sold not subject to collation, calf, g. e. with the old sides, stamped with the arms of Henry VIII and the Tudor rose, preserved small 8*vo. or* 16*mo.* (Antwerp, 1534)

This edition (measuring 5¼ in. by 4 in.), apparently undescribed by bibliographers, is totally different from that in the Grenville Collection (measuring 3¾ in. by 2¾ in.) printed in the same year. The famous Prologe to Romaynes commences on Ff i, and ends on Gg v. A full page of Text has 40 lines (or 46 in Prologe) including headline and catchword. The edition was probably printed surreptitiously at Antwerp, and must have been subsequent to that issued by Martin L'Empereur, in November, 1534. The leaves are not numbered, and the edition totally differs from all described by Lea Wilson, Cotton and Lowndes. In the first Epistle to St. Peter, the reading is, "Unto the Kinge as unto the chyefe heade."

274 Tyndale (W.) Manifestation of the unfaithful Conduct of George Joye, who had made some fanciful Alterations in Tyndale's Translation of the New Testament, November, 1534—Joye (G.) Apologye made to satisfye W. Tindale, 1535—An expediat Laicis legere Novi Testamenti Libros Lingua vernacula ad Scotiæ Regem Jacobum V, Disputatio inter Alex. Alesium Scotum et Jo. Cochlæum, in Latin and English, 1533

Transcripts in Mr. Offor's autograph 8*vo. in one vol.*

275 Biblia. The Bible, faithfully and truly translated out of Douche and Latyn in to Englishe (By Myles Coverdale), woodcuts (L. W. 1) black letter, EXTREMELY RARE, a few leaves inlaid, besides having first title and 19 following leaves, the Map of Canaan, a portion of the title to the second part, and last leaf, in beautiful facsimile, else a very fine copy, the tallest known (12½ in. by 9 in.) blue morocco, with blue morocco linings, g. e. by C. Murton folio. MDXXXV.

The first edition of the Bible in English, and so excessively rare that no perfect copy is known. Mr. Dunn Gardiner's (with title and last leaf in facsimile) sold for £365. It is very uncertain to what city this Bible owes its appearance, and in spite of the powerful reasons adduced by the various claimants for Froschover of Zurich, or Egenholf of Frankfort, it is just as likely to have been printed at Antwerp, Cologn or Lubec.

276 Bible (La) en Francoys (par R. R. Olivetan et J. Calvin) black letter, first 8 leaves mended in the margins, else fine copy in old calf folio. Neufchastel per Pierre de Wingle, dict Pirot Picard, 1535
First French Bible published by the Protestants, and very scarce.

277 Bibel met grooter neersticheyt gecorrigeert, woodcuts
black letter, title mended, wanting first two leaves in Genesis, and last leaf, sold with all faults half russia folio. Antwerpen, 1535

278 Novum Testamentum, Latine et Germanice a scarce edition, but slightly stained small 4to. Zürych, by Christoffel Froschouer, 1535

279 Bibel met grooter neersticheyt gecorrigeert, woodcuts
black letter, last leaf mended half russia folio. Thantwerpen, J. van Liesvelt, 1535
The printer was beheaded, and the editions of the Bible printed by him were rigidly suppressed and burnt.

280 Newe Testament. Tyndale's Version black letter, imperfect, as it commences on A v, and ends with l v, besides being cut in headline, and wanting sheet C, D i, E viii, H viii, O i, R ii and vii, d iv. a portion of h i, h iii, a portion of h vii, i ii, l i and l ii, sold therefore not subject to collation, see on fly-leaf autograph note of Dr. Adam Clarke small 8vo. (Antwerp, 1535)
The spelling, says Dr. Cotton, distinguishes this edition from all others, and Mr. Anderson suggests that it might have been intended "For the ploughboy and husbandmen of Gloucestershire." It is so excessively rare, that only two other copies (one imperfect) are known.

281 Enchiridion, compluscula eorum quæ in Sacris Bibliis, traduntur Picturis expressa continens addito in super Textu ac mox Precationibus piis e Lingua vernacula in Latinam per G. de Branteghem tralatis, woodcuts (from the identical blocks used in Coverdale's Bible of 1535)

283 Newe Testament newlye corrected. Tyndale's Version, corrected by Coverdale, black letter, woodcuts, sold not subject to collation, as title is in facsimile, and it wants A i, ii, iii and vi; B iii and iv; a small portion of L iii; M iii to viii; N i to v; a portion of P vii; P viii; Q i to iii, and vi to viii; S i, vii and viii; T i; U viii; X i to vi and viii; Y i to iii and viii; B b i and vii; C c i, ii, iv, v, vii and viii; D d vii and viii; E e i and viii; a portion of G g v, G g vi to viii; H h i to viii; I i i; Q q i and viii; U u i to viii; and a few letters in Y y viii; else fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt gaufré edges small 8*vo. n. d.* [circa 1535]

An edition apparently unnoticed by bibliographers. It is entirely in black letter, (Text, Headings, Notes, Numeration, &c.) with 36 lines to a full page. At the commencement of each Book is "The Summe" of it, and there are Gloses to the Chapters. The Prologue to Romayns occupies 16 leaves, or two whole sheets, marked ✠ & ✱. The Apocalipsis ends on reverse of folio CCCLII. In order that it may be identified hereafter, we note that Mark commences on recto of Fo. XLVI; Luke on recto of fol. LXXV; Acts on recto of fol. C.LVIII; Romans on recto fol. CC.II; and Hebrews on recto Fo. CCC.XII.

284 Biblia Sacra Latine, woodcuts, fine copy in old calf folio. Lugduni, 1536.

285 Biblia. The Bible in Englyshe, by Myles Coverdale, THE FIRST EDITION of 1535, with merely a new title-page, (11½ by 8 inches) black letter, woodcuts, first title and 19 following leaves, a small portion of p. i to v, the map of Canaan, the second title, a few letters in ii iii, last five leaves and several of the marginal notes completed in beautiful facsimile, else good sound copy in morocco extra, g. e. blind tooled in the old style, by Riviere folio. M. D. XXXVI

286 Bibel (Die gantze), woodcuts coloured, black letter, title damaged and backed, wanting a ii, d viii, and e i, besides folio CCCXII having a corner torn off, else fine copy in the original oak boards, covered with stamped pigskin folio. Zürich, by C. Froschouer, 1536

This Zürich Version of the Bible is much rarer than any by Luther.

287 Newe Testament yet once agayne corrected by Willyam Tindale. Tyndale's Version, with Prologues (L. W. 12), woodcuts black letter, title mended, in Tyndale's Preface the first leaf, (marked ✱ II) and the second A iii, as well as first four leaves of "The Gospell of S. Mat=" have been supplied from the two other editions printed in the same year (L. W. 10 & 11); corner of title to Epistles is in facsimile, and the Prologue to Romans is made up by using the three editions, a few letters at bottom of the fifth leaf being defective, and all of the leaves are mended to match in size, else fine copy in red morocco, joints, silk linings, g. e.

4*to. Prynted in the yere of oure Lorde God*, 1536

No other imperfection is known, but as it is impossible to distinguish with accuracy the leaves of the three editions this lot will be sold not subject to collation, although, as far as a careful inspection will warrant, it is confidently believed that, with the exception of the leaves pointed out, all the rest belong to the edition described by Lea Wilson as No. 12. The words, "This cup is the newe testament in my bloude," is omitted, but supplied in a cotemporary handwriting. The book is supposed to have been printed at Antwerp by Symon Cowke, or by W. Vorsterman. Gardner's copy, with several leaves mended, sold for £37.

288 Newe Testament, translated by Willyam Tindale, black letter, wants all before O iii, O vii and viii, P i, a portion of S i, S ii to viii, T i, signature l, E e viii, F f i, H h i, the principal portion of H h ii, H h viii, and all after I i viii, purple morocco, g. e. 16*mo.* MDXXXVI

The only copy known, and totally undescribed by bibliographers, until the notice of it appeared in the new edition of Lowndes. The book has every appearance of having been printed abroad, probably at Antwerp, and has elegant woodcut initials, those to 1 Timothy and 2 Peter (P. & S.) illustrating the DANCE OF DEATH, and that to Hebrews Joseph and Potiphar's Wife. In 1 Cor. XI, the words, "and said this cup is the new testament in my bloude," are omitted in the text, but are added in a smaller type on the margin.

289 Newe Testament yet once agayne corrected by Willyam Tindale (L. W. 11), woodcuts (with the mole on that of S. Paul) black letter, title and preface in facsimile, a few letters in a i, ii, iii, iv and v restored, marginal notes on b iiii and v facsimiled, portion of marginal notes of t, v and x restored with a pen, a few letters in A v restored, D i inlaid and marginal notes cut off, and very slightly wormed in the last leaves, else fine copy in blue morocco, g. e. by C. Murton, small 4*to.* (or rather royal 8*vo.*). Prynted in the yere of oure Lorde God 1536

A very rare edition, with Tyndale's Prologues, supposed to have been printed at Antwerp, in which, in 1 Cor. XI, the words,

"This cup is the new testament in my blood," are totally omitted. Mr. Stevens values it at £45. Under this date were printed three distinct editions, but not eight, as owing to variations, caused by correcting errors during the printing, some have been led to believe.

290 Newe Testament yet once agayne corrected by Willyam Tindale (L. W. 10), woodcuts (that of St. Paul with the stone blank, instead of having the mole or engraver's monogram), black letter, corner of title and first leaf of Preface restored with a pen, else good sound copy, with a very rare cancel (Fol. CLXXIII), shewing that errors were corrected during the working of the sheets, and that the variations of five copies of this blank stone edition are the results of corrections during the printing, and that they are in all other respects of the self-same edition. (See Mr. Offor's MS. memoranda on fly-leaves.) This copy for instance has the words in 1 Cor. XI, This cup, &c. not in that belonging to the Rev. Mr. Fletcher, EXTREMELY RARE, morocco extra, small 4to. Prynted in the yere of oure Lorde God 1536

The rarest of the three distinct editions, printed paginatim, with this date. It probably emanated from the Press of Vorsterman at Antwerp, as many of the woodcuts and capitals will be found in the Flemish Bibles printed by him in 1528 and 1542.

291 BIBLE (THE), FAITHFULLY AND TRULY TRANSLATED OUT OF DOUCHE AND LATYN IN TO ENGLISHE (BY MYLES COVERDALE), with woodcut capitals (including DANCE OF DEATH), &c. (L. W. 3), black letter, title in facsimile, and wanting all before b iii commencing folio XI, 25 Gen.), a few words defective in b iii and v, portion of c vi torn off, a few letters in c viii deficient, e i wanted, small corner of x viii torn off, p p vi mended, N n iv mended, X x vii mended; sheets D (in New Testament), N iii and VI, P VII and VIII, Q i and iii, and the tables at end deficient, else fine copy, although several of the margins are pieced, bound in carved oak, morocco joints, silk linings, richly embroidered with gold, gilt gaufré edges, with massive chased silver clasps, enclosed in a box, lined with velvet 4*to. Southwarke, J. Nycolson*, 1537 shorter copy, inlaid and the defective letters supplied by Harris, with portraits of W. Tyndale, H. Wanley, John Duke of Lauderdale, and John Rogers prefixed, blue morocco super extra, leather linings, vellum fly-leaves, broad borders of gold, g. e. by C. Murton folio. M,D,XXXVII,

A complete copy of this edition, which is supposed to have been printed abroad, is of extraordinary rarity, Lea Wilson's, at Mr. Gardener's sale, producing £150. Another copy, with three leaves in MS. sold at Mr. Fletcher's, in May 1845, for £105. The Translation is that of W. Tyndale, with a few emendations by John Rogers (the first Martyr in Queen Mary's Reign), who assumed the name of Thomas Matthew in the publication as a disguise. This copy is the identical one palmed on John Duke of Lauderdale as an edition of 1520 by one Thornton, who scratched out of the title-page to the New Testament the XVII for the purpose of concealing the fraud. This Thornton probably also has ingeniously but knavishly contrived by erasing at commencement of Epistle to Romans, after Paul, the words the servaunt, and substituting an kneawe, to make UNIQUE this COPY, which, if the reading had been genuine, entitled it to be called "The Knave's Bible." A full description of the edition is given by Lea Wilson.

folio. Sowthwarke for James Nycolson, 1537

Lea Wilson and Lowndes are both incorrect in the collation of this extremely rare volume. The first Part ends on folio CXVIII marked CXIX in error, and not as asserted on CXVII marked CXVI, the last leaves being marked CXV, CXVI, CXVI, CXIX. According to Lowndes "THIS EDITION IS RARER THAN THE FIRST (1535)."

297 New Testament, both in Latin and English, after the vulgare texte: which is red in the churche. Translated and corrected by Myles Couverdale black letter (the Latin in Roman type), very fine copy, but title in facsimile, blue morocco extra, gilt gaufré edges
8*vo. Paris, F. Regnault*, 1538

This edition was, according to Fox, printed at the expense of Bishop Bonner whilst English Ambassador in France. Only a few copies had been distributed, when the impression was seized by the Inquisition and destroyed. Gardner's copy sold for £82, Harman's for £79. and Heber's with 3 leaves in facsimile, £21.

298 New Testament. Coverdale's Version, with Tyndale's Prologues and Coverdale's Summaries of the Chapters and Gloses (not in Lea Wilson), with nearly 200 woodcuts black letter, VERY RARE, but wants title and six following leaves, and also at end in the Epistles of the Olde Testament after the use of Salisbury and Tables signatures n 8 and o i, 7 and 8; the copy is also slightly cut into the marginal notes, here and there a letter being cut off, red morocco, gilt gaufré edges small 8*vo. Imprynted at Antwerpe, by Matthew Crom*, 1538

This is the first separate edition of Coverdale's Version of the New Testament, and extremely rare; the only perfect copy known being in the Grenville Collection, now forming part of the British Museum.

299 Newe Testament, both Latine (the Vulgate) and Englyshe. Faythfully translated by Myles Couverdale (L. W. 13)

small 4*to. Southwarke, J. Nicolson*, 1538

Archdeacon Cotton prononnces this first edition "extremely scarce," and mentions that "Mr. Lewis was not even aware of its existence." It was so incorrectly printed that the translator endeavoured to call in all the copies. Whether

Nicolson complied with Coverdale's request it is impossible now to ascertain, but certain it is that it is a very great rarity, and that the printer immediately issued another edition exactly in the same form and type, only substituting the name of Johan Hollybushe for that of Myles Coverdale, and making a few trifling changes in the translation. In 1855 Mr. Stevens marked a perfect copy £84.

300 Newe Testament, in Latine and Englyshe, faythfullye translated by Johan Hollybushe (Myles Coverdale's Version, with a few verbal alterations, L. W. 14) black letter, first 14 leaves and last 8 from a shorter copy pieced to match in size, corner of A a i and a small portion of last leaf in facsimile, else good copy, blue morocco, g. e. by C. Murton small 4*to. Southwarke, J. Nicolson*, 1538

This was the second edition of Coverdale's Version issued by Nicolson when requested to call in the first. The name of Hollybushe was probably a pseudonym adopted by the printer in order to deceive the public, as Coverdale's complaints against the errors might have seriously affected the sale of any edition of the date bearing his name. An imperfect copy sold in the Tenison sale for £25. and Mr. Stevens marked one perfect £84.

301 NEWE TESTAMENT IN ENGLYSHE (Tyndale's) AND IN LATIN (Erasmus), with the Pystles taken out of the Olde Testament black letter, a very large copy, but first title and Calendar in facsimile, blue morocco, broad borders of gold, g. e. by C. Murton, EXCESSIVELY RARE, not in Lea Wilson 4*to. R. Redman*, 1538

The only perfect copy known is that in the library of Mr. Lennox, which was priced by Mr. Stevens in 1855 at £170. A curious typographical error at 2 Cor. x B, "Let him that is such thynke on hys wyfe," instead of "thys wyse," was repeated in the edition of 1549.

302 HORÆ BEATISSIMÆ VIRGINIS MARIÆ SECUNDUM USUM SARUM totaliter ad longum, cum Calendario, woodcuts

black letter, very rare, but wants last leaf of Calendar, morocco extra 16*mo. Rothomagi per N. Le Roux*, 1538

Besides several Prayers in English this rare volume contains: The Maner to lyve well, compyled by J. Quentin, englished by Robert Copland.

Pystles and Gospels (after the use of Salysbury) of every Sonday and Holy Daye in the Yere, woodcut, with drawing of R. Copland, the printer, by G. Offor prefixed, morocco extra, g. e. 16*mo. no place* (Rouen), M.D.XXXVIII. 2 vol.

304 Bible (The most Sacred) translated by Rychard Taverner, (L. W. 5)

black letter, title and last leaf in facsimile, dedication and contents of the Scripture pieced at top, Names of the Bokes of the Byble damaged and mended, sheet A mended at the corners, and sheet R in New Testament pieced in the bottom margin, else good copy, in blue morocco extra, g. e. folio. John Byddell for Thomas Barthlet, 1539

First edition of Taverner's Bible. Stevens' copy, in 1857, sold for £36. and Pickering's, wanting title and 5 leaves, for £21. The collation given by Lea Wilson is erroneous, and has been copied in Lowndes. The briefe Rehearsall and Table occupy 26 pages, and not 24 as stated by both. Neither take notice that there is in the New Testament a skip in the numeration, folio LV to LX (which would have formed sheet K) being omitted, caused no doubt by the employment of two sets of compositors to complete the work in a hurry. In this copy the words in 1 Cor. xi, "This cup," &c. are inserted correctly. Mr. Lea Wilson is also in error in asserting that "peace" is invariably spelled "peax," as it is spelt in various instances in the usual way, see Mark ix, 50.

305 New Testament, in Englysshe, after the Greke exemplar. Dilygently translated and corrected by Rycharde Tauerner woodcuts of the Evangelists black letter, title-page in facsimile, wants Calendar and Table of Evangelists (11 leaves), part of A i and the whole of A ii to A viii, M vii, ✠ iii, ✠ 1, and last leaf in facsimile, morocco extra, g. e. VERY RARE, not in Lea Wilson small 4*to. Imprynted by T. Petit for T. Berthelet,* 1539

306 New Testament, Coverdale's Version (not in Lea Wilson)

black letter, woodcuts, title in facsimile, commences on A ii (the first Chapter of Saint Matthew being deficient) and concluding with "The ende of the newe Testament" on reverse of S iv, white morocco extra, g. e. by C. Murton

VERY RARE small 8*vo. Antwerpe, by M. Crom,* 1539

This copy has all the Prologues of Tyndale, and Lowndes is in: error in asserting that it does not contain that to the Romans, which occupies 2 sheets (16 leaves) marked ✠ and ✠ ✠, printed in a smaller letter.

307 Byble (The) in Englyshe. Tyndale's Version, revised by M. Coverdale. THE GREAT OR CROMWELL'S BIBLE, usually but erroneously termed the first edition of Cranmer, who had nothing to do with either the translation or publication, having been put forth entirely by Thomas Lord Cromwell (L. W. 6), woodcuts (including Holbein's large engraving round title) black letter, the printed portion of title (the beautiful woodcut border by Holbein from the New Testament of April, 1540, supplying the engraved portion, it being from the identical blocks) and first leaf of Kalendar in facsimile, a few words in * 6, and a few letters in E v in manuscript, else fine copy in russia, g. e.

folio. R. Grafton & E. Whitchurch, Apryll, 1539

This impression was commenced secretly in Paris, and when nearly finished, the printers, disturbed by the Inquisition, contrived to save a considerable number of copies and to bring them to London with their types. The work having been completed was issued to the public. The great rarity of this edition is probably owing to the Royal Proclamation ordering the Bible "of the largest and greatest volume" to be placed in every Parish Church, where by constant thumbing most of the copies must have been destroyed. Lea Wilson's copy (in Mr. Gardner's sale) produced £121.

308 Byble (The), in Englyshe. Cranmer's Version (L. W. 13)

black letter, title mended, 3 letters on folio A in facsimile, L i mended at corner, 5 letters on folio L L l vi in facsimile, and last leaf of Table beautifully facsimiled by Harris, else a fine large copy, with autograph of Wm Herbert, having the black letter Admonicion of the Bysshop of London (inlaid) as well as 2 leaves on vellum (Ordo ad faciendum Sponsalia, and large cut of the Crucifixion), from a Salisbury Missal prefixed, splendidly bound in morocco, super extra, covered with blind tooling in the old style, g. e. by Riviere, EXTREMELY RARE folio. T. Petyt and R. Redman for T. Berthelet, Apryll, 1540

This is a reprint or second edition of that of April 1539, erroneously called the first of Cranmer, although, in fact, the Archbishop had nothing to do with either the translation or publication, the first with which he had anything to do being that of April 1540, the text of which materially differs from this issue, which was put forth entirely by Thomas Lord Cromwell, who employed Coverdale to revise the existing translations. Its correct designation ought to be "Cromwell's Coverdale." This edition will be easily recognized by looking at folio CXLVII (Esdras VI), where the bottom line of CXLVI, by a printer's blunder, is repeated.

309 BYBLE (THE) in Englyshe, with aprologe therinto, made by the reverende father in God, Thomas [Cranmer], archbyshop of Cantorbury (L. W. 7), woodcuts black letter, wants Exhortacyon, the Summe and Contents, first Prologue and Descripcion (3 leaves), and title, a few words in first leaf of Prologue, a few words in Q iii, a few words in O O viii, a few letters in N n iii and iv, and last two leaves (Table) in beautiful facsimile, else fine copy, in blue morocco extra, g. e. fol. R. Grafton, Apryl, 1540

First edition of the Bible published under the revision of Archbishop Cranmer, and very scarce. As there are five editions, all extremely alike, it is exceedingly difficult to distinguish them one from the other, and the consequence is that to find one perfectly genuine in every leaf is almost impossible. This copy as to text is perfect, but the first part has certainly been taken from the July edition. The other distinctions which mark the April from the subsequent editions in this copy are correct, but as there may have been other leaves supplied from the July edition this lot must be sold not subject to collation.

310 Byble (The), in Englyshe, with a Prologe thereinto made by the reverende father in God Thomas [Cranmer] Archbysshop of Canterbury (L. W. 7), woodcuts

FIRST EDITION OF CRANMER'S BIBLE (Tyndale's Version, corrected by Myles Coverdale) EXCESSIVELY RARE

Bonner's Admonition pasted inside the cover*

folio. E. Whytchurche, Apryll, 1540

No other imperfection is known, but as a portion is supplied from the July edition, it will be sold as it is, and not subject to collation. The large ornamental letters in Esdras, Esther, Job, &c. are peculiar to this edition, as mentioned by Lea Wilson, who, however, takes no notice of his copy of the Epistle to the Romans, commencing with a capital P, ornamented in the same style. This is, however, the case with both Mr. Offor's copies.

W. 12), woodcuts black letter, genuine title, but a small portion of the printed part and a corner of woodcut border in facsimile, and a few letters in last two leaves eaten out by a worm, else a fine copy in blue morocco extra, g. e. with silver clasps, having Bishop Bonner's Admonition to Readers of the Bible on vellum (supposed by Mr. Offor to be the original set up in St. Paul's Cathedral) placed on the inside of the front cover folio. Rycharde Grafton, November, 1541

Excessively rare: Mr. Stevens's copy, in 1857, sold for £90. This copy commences chapter VI of Judges with a wrong woodcut capital (B for A) in the word And, but has also a cancel with the letter correct. This cancel is not mentioned by any bibliographer.

319 Byble (The), in Englyshe. Cranmer's Version black letter, woodcuts, 2 copies, very imperfect, and various duplicate leaves from the editions of May, November and December, a large bundle folio. R. Grafton, 1541

This lot would be found most useful for completing copies, but no perfect Bible could be made up.

black letter, with woodcut initial letters, fine copy, quite complete, blue morocco extra, g. e. by C. Murton, EXCESSIVELY RARE, and supposed to be UNIQUE, as it is the only copy known small 8*vo. Edward Whitchurche,* 1547

In this edition a large portion of Rev. I (v. 9-20) is totally omitted, for which reason Mr. Anderson (Annals, II, 241, n.) conjectures that the book was called in, and Archdeacon Cotton adds, "AT ALL EVENTS NO OTHER COPY BESIDES MR. OFFOR'S HAS BEEN FOUND." Another omission occurs in 1 Cor. xv. 46, "and then that which is spiritual." In Romans viii. 39, "nether hye, nether lowe," occur instead of "neyther heyght nether loweth," differing therein from all Cranmer's Editions. The following is the collation of the book: Title (in red and black) within a woodcut border, with N. H. (probably Nicholas Hill) in lower compartment, having on reverse "An Almanacke (in red and black) for XXV yeres (1546-1560), followed by the Kalendar (in red and black), 3 leaves, Tables for the foure Evangelists and Actes," 11 leaves, and Rehersall of all the Contents, &c. 1 leaf (in all 16 leaves). The Gospel of St. Matthew commences on a i, and Revelation ends on recto of R iv, having on reverse the commencement of the Table to fynde the Epistles, &c. which concludes on the recto of R vii, having on the reverse the following imprint:

small 4*to. Worcester, Ihon Oswen*, 1550

The title-page is not the right one, but probably out of an edition of the Bible. The imprint also has no date, and differs from that given by Mr. Lea Wilson. In this copy it runs: ☙ Newly Imprinted | at Worcester by Ihon Oswen, Prynter ap | poynted by the Kynges Maiestie, & his | highnes Honorable Counsaill, for | the Principalitye of Wales, | and Marches of the | same. | ¶ This be also to sell at | Shrewesbury. | ☞ Cum Gratia & Priuilegio ad imprimendum solum. | Cotton mentions this peculiarity as existing in a fragment, containing the notes only, in St. Paul's Library.

calf extra, g. e. folio. T. Petyt (for N. Hyll) 1551
On the fly-leaves, Mr. Offor has pointed out some variations in the different known copies of this edition, caused by the correction of errors discovered during the working of the sheets. He also calls attention to the droll note on Matth. xix.

378 Bible (The) translated into Englyshe by T. Mathewe morocco extra, g. e. folio. Jhon Day, 1551

Nearly every copy of this edition varies in some minute particular, as the printers probably corrected the errors discovered whilst striking off the sheets. These corrections occur very often in the numeration. This copy has a line (Israel: he defyleth not hys neyghbours) entirely omitted, which, however, is supplied by a slip, printed in the same type, pasted down. Neither Lea Wilson nor Lowndes mentions the Kalender and Dedication, by E. Becke, in their collation. Although the title-page professes the translation to be that of Mathewe, such is not the case, as the whole of the Old Testament (with exception of Deut. xiii to Josh. xiii inclusive, and Psalms) are certainly Taverner's, with a few trivial variations made by Becke. In the Apocrypha 3 Esdras, Tobit and Judith are entirely a new version, differing from all others, the third Book of Maccabees being added for the first time. The New Testament is Tyndale's as are the Prologues throughout. The edition is rather uncommon. Mr. Gardner's copy sold for £45.

393 Newe Testament. Tyndale's Version, woodcuts
black letter, title-page in facsimile, wanting last leaf of Calendar and sheet B, and also very slightly wormed, else fine copy in old calf, with Royal Arms on sides
VERY RARE 16*mo. Richarde Jugge*, (1553)
This edition was not in Lea Wilson's collection, and seems to be unknown to Dr. Cotton, Lowndes and other bibliographers. The "Almanacke for XVII. yeares" commences in 1553 and ends with 1570. Mr. Offor, in a MS. note, states, "An imperfect copy of this book was sold, in Chr. Anderson's Library, April, 1852, for £22."

394 Newe Testament (Tyndale's Version, L. W. 31)

397 Nouveau Testament en François, woodcuts, fine copy, ruled, but wants general title 16*mo. Lyons*, 1553

This edition was rigidly suppressed, in all probability, on account of the woodcut of the Temptation (Matth. iv. repeated Luke iv.) in which Christ is represented tempted by the Devil, habited as a Monk with hood and beads.

This is the original Genevan Version, and not Tomson's, as the facsimile titlepage would lead any one to imagine. Tomson's revision, in its earliest edition, did not appear until 1576.

426 Bible (The) in Englishe according to the translation of the great Byble, Cranmer's Version (L. W. 26) black letter, VERY SCARCE, but title and names of all the bookes in facsimile, else a fine copy in old calf, having stamped on sides, in gold, a tree with a label inscribed "NOLI ALTUM SAPERE" small 4*to. Ihon Cawoode,* 1561

427 New Testament. Tyndale's Version, woodcuts

black letter, title and dedication in facsimile, wanting all the preliminary pages before the map of Palestine, and corner of P i mended, else fine copy, bound in embroidered silk, lined with morocco covered with gold tooling in the Grolier style, gilt gaufré edges, with gilt silver corners, in a stamped morocco cover 16*mo. Richarde Jugge* (1561)

This edition is totally different from the two described by Mr. Lea Wilson (33 & 34) and seems to have escaped Dr. Cotton,

Lowndes, and all other bibliographers. "The (a) Gospell by Saint Matthæwe" (sic in headline throughout) commences on A 1, and Revelation ends on recto of T t 2, having on reverse the commencement of "¶ The Epistles of the olde Testament, &c." which conclude on reverse of T t 4. Next follows "Table to finde the Epistles and Gospels," &c. 4 pages. The imprint fills the whole of the next page (reverse blank) and as it differs from Lea Wilson's description we give it entire:

Imprinted at London in | Powles Churchyarde by Ri- | charde Iugge Printer to | the Queenes | Maiestie. |

Forbidding all other men to print, or cause to be | printed, this, or any other Testament in | Englishe.

¶ Cum priuilegio Regiæ Maiestatis.

This is followed by a woodcut of Jugge's Device. The Initial Letter to the Epistle to the Hebrews is different from the one with M. C. of the following lot, and is evidently not of the same impression, as in every page there are words not spelt alike. Gal. vi. i. in this copy reads "Brethren, if a man be prevented in any fault," whilst in the other it is "yf a man be taken," which may serve as a sample of the variations.

428 Newe Testament. Tyndale's Version, woodcuts black letter, title and dedication in facsimile, wanting sheet R R (excepting last leaf) and a few of the notes in front margins cut into, red morocco, super extra, gilt gaufré edges 16*mo. R. Jugge* (1561)

This copy in its collation appears to agree with 34 of Lea Wilson, except in the imprint which reads "Imprinted at London in Powles Churchyarde by Richarde Iugge, Printer to the Queenes Majestie. Forbidding all other men to print, or cause to be printed, this, or any other Testament in Englishe. ¶ Cum privilegio Regiæ Maiestatis," followed by woodcut of Pelican. This edition may be readily recognized by the woodcut G commencing "The Epistle of Saint Paul to the Hebrues" having printed therein the letters M. C. which are not in the other copies of this date. This edition ends on T t 7. Matthew is marked in headline "The Gospell by saint Matthewe." Lowndes in the first edition of his Bibliographer's Manual seems to have seen a copy of this rare book, and pointed out the initial with M. C. as the distinction, although he erroneously considered it Coverdale's version. His new editor, however, evidently doubted its existence, and observes "There is no other authority for this assertion."

429 Newe Testament. Tyndale's Version black letter, an edition hitherto undescribed, but which may be readily distinguished from the other two of Lea Wilson's by a glance at the headings of St. Matthew, which read in this "The Gospel by Saynt Matthæwe," instead of "The Gospell by Saint Matthewe" of Lea Wilson 16*mo*. R. Jugge (1561)

Unfortunately this copy wants all before B i, and various leaves in different parts of the book, but has the concluding sheet T t with imprint complete. This edition is in a totally different type from either of the preceding, and the imprint is also a variation from either of those given by Lea Wilson or that of the preceding lots. In this copy the imprint is "Imprinted at London in Powles Churchyarde by Richarde Iugge, printer to the Queenes Maiestie. Forbyddyng all other men to prynt, or cause to be printed, this or any other Testament in Englishe. Cum priuilegio Regiæ Maiestatis," followed by the Device of the Pelican.

430 Bible (The) in Englishe, Cranmer's Version (L. W. 27) black letter, woodcuts, title inlaid and two leaves at end mended, with a few words in facsimile, else good sound copy in russia extra, g. e. fol. Richarde Harrison, 1562

This copy has not the four maps stated by Dr. Cotton to belong to the edition; but this is very doubtful, as Lea Wilson does not mention any in his collation. Probably they had been added from some other edition in the copy collated by Dr. Cotton. O o i in the heading has Easy instead of Esay.

431 Bible (The) with moste profitable Annotations upon all the hard Places, Genevan Version (*L. The Kalendrier was probably the earliest work printed at Saint Lo. Dr. Cotton does not mention any work printed at this place. An edition of the Pseaumes en Rime was printed at St. Lo in this same year—see post, No. 452.

small 4to. Richard Watkins, n. d. (1565)

Archdeacon Cotton assigns to this edition two different dates, 1565 and 1600, on the authority of Herbert, candidly confessing, "I have never seen this edition," Mr. Offor, in his MS. note on fly-leaf, writes, "but Dr. Cotton must be in error, because this is the Bishop's (Parker) translation, which was first published in 1568." Mr. Offor, however, has made a slight mistake, for although in general the same version as that called "The Bishop's Bible," the variations are so numerous as to show that it was not reprinted from the editions of 1568 or 69. All these alterations, however, seem to have been silently adopted in the edition of 1572. In Gal. ii. a part of verse 4 is omitted, and is filled in by a cotemporary scribe, apparently from Tyndale's Version, as the words among uther is substituted for privily. Several of the headings have also been corrected in the same handwriting. No copy of this rare edition was in Lea Wilson's Collection, and neither Dr. Cotton nor Lowndes has been able to point out one in any public or private collection.

This is the last edition in which Death on the grene horse occurs, having subsequently been altered to pale horse. The woodcuts must have been imported from abroad, as several of them are by S. Feyerabend, Virgilius Solis, &c.

Judges (see Lea Wilson, who considered his copy of it unique), besides 32 CANCELLED LEAVES (not mentioned by bibliographers), as well as the CANCELS blue morocco extra, g. e. folio. Richarde Jugge, 1568

This is the first edition of the Bishops' Bible, so called on account of the Version having been revised by several of the Bishops, under the superintendance of Archbishop Parker. In a complete state it is of the greatest rarity, at which we need not be surprised, when we recollect that, by an Order of Convocation, it was expressly ordained that a copy should be placed in every Cathedral, and moreover that every Archbishop, Bishop, Dean and Ecclesiastical dignitary was to have one exposed in his hall or dining room for the use of servants and visitors. The wear and tear this would entail, renders it most astonishing that any copies have escaped destruction. The present copy has at end of Psalms the "Numerus secundum Hebreos," instead of being blank as usual. Lea Wilson's copy, without the cancels, sold for £60. 10s.

463 BIBLE (THE) IN ENGLISHE, according to the translation of the great Byble, Cranmer's Version (L. W. 31), 5 vol.
black letter, title and corner of R iii in New Testament in facsimile; in the third part, sheets G g g and I ii are from Cawood's second edition (the type and reading agreeing, but not the pagination) of the same date (L. W. 32), as also are several other leaves in this volume, and the entire New Testament is from Cawood's third edition of the same date (L. W. 33); short but good copy, having occasionally the pagination and signatures cut off, blue morocco, g. e.; although otherwise perfect, sold as it is, and not subject to collation small 4to. John Cawood, 1569

The rarity of all three of Cawood's Editions of 1569 is too well known to require comment. To obtain a perfect copy of either, pure and unmixed, is most difficult, owing to the knavery of dealers, who, to complete a copy, do not seem to be over-scrupulous in the mixing of leaves.

464 Bible (The holi), Bishops' Version (L. W. 34), the engraved title with portrait of Q. Elizabeth, inlaid, a portion of the first leaf of Preface in facsimile, wants Kalender, 6 leaves; the order of Morning and Evening Prayer, 4 leaves; the whole of the Apocrypha; and leaf of Errata; good sound copy, but slightly cut in the head-line and some of the marginal notes, sold therefore with all faults, although believed to be otherwise perfect, blue morocco extra, g. e. by C. Murton, rare small 4to. Richarde Jugge, 1569

Lea Wilson's copy sold for £23. 10s. With this lot will be sold a copy of the Apocrypha (belonging to this edition), wanting a portion of D dd ii, and of I i i VII, besides the title.

465 Bible (The), with most profitable Annotations upon all the hard places (L. W. 35), woodcuts, cut in the headline, Lea Wilson's copy, calf gilt 4to. Geneva, John Crispin, 1569

The New Testament is dated 1568.

466 Testamenti Novi Editio Vulgata, woodcuts 16*mo. Lugd.* 1569

467 Bible (The), Genevan Version (L. W. 36), with the Psalmes in Metre (with Music), woodcuts, title-page, dedication, and signatures a 2 and a 3 mended, blue morocco extra, g. e. 4to. Geneva, John Crispin, 1570

There is a slight variation in this copy from that described by Lea Wilson, as not only the title to the New Testament, but also that to the Psalmes in Metre is dated 1568. The Psalmes end with the Forme of Prayer on the reverse of folio 65, without Calvin's Catechism, which seems to have been an afterthought, and is found only in copies dated 1569.

Published by John Fox. Perfect copies are so extremely rare that Mrs. Denyer's sold for £10. 10s.

470 Bible (Holie), Bishops' Version (with two Translations of Psalms) (L. W. 37), black letter, map and portraits of Q. Elizabeth, Lord Leycester, and Lord Burleigh, on copper; and woodcuts; title-page (except portrait of Q. Elizabeth) in facsimile, the Scripture Genealogies slightly defective and mended, wants leaf entitled "Summe of the whole Scripture," and many leaves at end pieced, else good copy, blue morocco extra, g. e. folio. Richarde Jugge, 1572

This edition exhibits a text considerably amended. Curiously enough, as an ornamental letter to embellish the Bible will be found one of Leda and the Swan, besides many initials taken from subjects in Ovid's Metamorphoses. Pickering's copy sold for £42. 10s.

471 Nouveau Testament, par les Theologiens de Louvaine, woodcuts, wants title and preface, with a few words torn off last leaf, rare 16*mo. Louvaine*, 1572

598 New Testament, with Notes by W. Tyndale black letter, imperfect, but has last leaf
16*mo. Deputie of C. Barker*, 1598
An edition apparently totally unknown. The version does not agree exactly with any other translation. For instance, Luke iii. 3 reads, "It seemed good time also, having perfect understanding of all things from the beginning, &c." and 1 Tim. iv. 16, "Take heede unto thyselfe and unto doctrine." In general it is most like the Bishops' Version.

calf, gilt gaufré edges 4*to. Deputies of C. Barker*, 1599
This copy is different from any of the six editions of this date described by Lea Wilson. The woodcut capital is similar to his No. 6, but a comparison of the first line of Ester will show that this is a distinct edition.

holy Scriptures," signed T. Gras. There are also two engravings ("The deckins of the parts of the holy Tabernacle," and "The Patron of the high-Priest clade with the holie vestiments, &c.") both of which seem not to have been in copies described by Lea Wilson or Lowndes. In Exodus xxx. 12, a line is omitted (them, that there bee no plague among), but is inserted in this copy, printed on a slip and pasted on. In Deut. xiii. 9, another line (death, and then the hands of all the people) is also on a pasted slip. The work was probably undertaken by two sets of compositors, as signatures Yyy and Zzz are omitted, the number of the folios skipping from 402 to 415. This edition seems to have been considered a masterpiece of printing, as many subsequent impressions make a boast of being "conform to the edition printed by Andrew Hart."

FIRST EDITION (second impression) with the errors OE for OF and CHKIST for CHRIST in dedication black letter, wants title, and imperfect at end, sold with all faults folio. R. Barker, 1611
Mr. Lea Wilson erroneously considered this the first edition of the Authorized Version. The earliest issue has not the errors in the dedication, and is easily recognized by having the Royal Arms on the recto of the leaf commencing: "The Genealogies of the Holy Scripture," and by Exod. xiv 12 ending with catchword "for," instead of having the verse complete, as in this copy.

683 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 113) wants title, for which a facsimile of the Genevan version has been substituted 4*to. R. Barker,* 1612

685 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version, with Scripture Genealogies (L. W. 113) engraved title by Jasper Isac
calf gilt, rare small 4*to.* R. Barker, 1612

This is the first edition of the Authorized Version issued in quarto for family use, that of 1611 in royal folio being intended for churches. There were two editions in quarto published in 1612, but the first is readily distinguished from the second by the headline in Kk 4 being marked "Chap. XLI," instead of "XLII," as in the subsequent.

686 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 113) with Scripture Genealogies, engraved title
FIRST EDITION of the present version in Roman letters, EXTREMELY RARE, purple morocco extra, g. e.
4*to.* R. Barker, 1612

There must have been at least two editions issued with this date, as, though apparently alike, the spelling is often different. The following differences will serve to distinguish the two editions. In this copy the headline of the reverse of the the second leaf of Galatians stands: "The Galatians reproued. To the Galaitans. The Law a Schoolemaster to Christ." In the other: "The Galatians reproued. To the Galatians. The Law a Schoolemaster to Christ. As specimens of the spelling of words being different, see Contents of Chapter I of Exodus, where in the other copy the word multiplie ends the line, whilst in this it is divided multi- ply. Psalmes I, 7, me in this copy, mee in the other. In Galatians III, in this copy it is set forth, in the other set foorth. In Apocrypha, I Esdras I, 17, accomplished in this, accõplished in the other. In Gal. IV, 17, in this zelously, in the other zealously. In Gal. IV, 22, in this bondmayd, in the other bondmaid. The woodcut capitals are also often totally different. In the heading to Matth. Chapt. I, in this copy it is Hee and Shee, in the other He and She. Sheet Kk 4 in the headline is marked Chap. XLII.

On the back is lettered JOHN MILTON, and no other reason can be imagined than because that name in an oldish handwriting is thrice on the back of the title to the New Testament. If it was intended to convey an idea that the copy once belonged to the immortal Poet, all we can say is that the signature bears as much resemblance to that of the Author of Paradise Lost as another in the same page, "Robert Calcraft," bears to that of his more celebrated namesake the hangman.

Extremely rare, and apparently unknown to bibliographers. Lowndes mentions an edition of the same date and of the same size in Black Letter.

754 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 139), engraved title, Camb. T. & J. Buck, 1629—Book of Common Prayer, ib. 1629—Scripture Genealogies, woodcuts, ib. 1629—Psalmes in Meeter, with Tunes, ib. 1629 fine copies folio. in one vol.

The text appears to have undergone a thorough revision, and considerable care bestowed upon the printing, the words in italics, the punctuation, &c. By what authority this emendation took place is nowhere recorded. One error, repeated in many of the subsequent Testaments will be found 1 Tim. iv, 16, where thy doctrine is substituted for the doctrine. This error probably appeared here for the first time.

This volume is most interesting as the first edition of the Authorized Version printed in Scotland, and, owing to the impression having been extremely limited, of the greatest rarity. The engravings are supposed to have been inserted in a few copies by order of Archbishop Laud, and from this circumstance were called "The Archbishop of Canterbury's Bibles." It was one of the charges against Laud that "he had brought these Popish pictures from foreign parts, and that with his good liking they were bound up in English Bibles, &c." Lord Hailes in his Memorials and Letters (vol. ii, p. 42) has printed a very remarkable letter respecting these plates "in your own Scots Bibles," describing them as "such abominable pictures that horrible impiety stares through them. These come forth by public authority." In 1 Tim. iv, 16, thy for the doctrine.

very large copy, ruled, in old English black morocco, g. e. folio. Camb. Thomas Buck and Roger Daniel, 1638

In this edition first occurs the very material error in Acts vi. 3, Whom ye may appoint, instead of we. This dangerous error has often been falsely attributed to the Independants, and sometimes to the Presbyterians. Another mistake occurs in 1 Tim. iv. 16, where thy doctrine is printed for the doctrine.

814 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (with Scripture Genealogies, dated 1638) — The Old Testament (L. W. 167) dated 1640—The New Testament (1 Tim. iv. 16, thy for the Doctrine) on title 1641, at end 1642, R. Barker, 1640-42—Downame (J.) Concordance to the Bible, W. Du-Gard, 1652

THE GENUINE EDITION small 8*vo. R. Barker, &c.* 1638

Very scarce, unknown to Lea Wilson and Lowndes, who mention the counterfeit printed in Holland, as remarkable for its gross errors as this genuine is for its correctness.

817 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version, with Scripture Genealogies (not in Lea Wilson, who had the counterfeit) R. Barker, &c. 1638—Book of Common Prayer, id. 1638—Psalmes in Meeter, G. M. for Companie of Stationers, 1639 fine copies in old calf, with arms of Charles I. on sides 8*vo. in one vol.*

This is the genuine and very correct edition, which must not be confounded with the Dutch counterfeit.

818 Psalter, pointed, &c. with godly Prayers black letter, imperfect, but has title and last leaves small 4*to.* 1638

819 New Testament, Authorized Version (L. W. 162) stained 12*mo.* R. Barker, 1638

An edition notorious for its errors, e. g. Luke vii. 47, Her sins which are many are forgotten instead of forgiven; Luke xix. 29, ten of his disciples, instead of two; John xviii. 29, Pilate then went not unto them, instead of went out; 1 Tim. iv. 16, thy for the doctrine, &c.

820 New Testament, Authorized Version 12*mo.* R. Barker, &c. 1638

In 1 Tim. iv. 16, thy for the doctrine.

821 New Testament, Authorized Version black letter, not in Lea Wilson's collection, ILLUSTRATED with woodcuts from a Dutch version 16*mo.* R. Barker, &c. 1638

822 New Testament. Authorized Edition, not in Lea Wilson, a very correct edition, R. Barker, &c. 1638—Book of Common Prayer, id. 1638—Psalmes in Meeter, with Music, Company of Stationers, 1638 in old binding, covered with gold tooling 48*mo.* 2 vol.

823 New Testament, Authorized Version (1 Tim. iv. 16, thy for the) EXTREMELY RARE, but slightly cut in the margins, in a beautiful silver filagree cover with clasps, in a case 32*mo.* Edinb. R. Young, 1638

Mr. Offor states, "This edition is of extreme rarity, and has escaped the notice of all the bibliographers." This is a mistake, for, although extremely rare, it is mentioned by Dr. Lee in his Account of Scottish Bibles (p. 99), and also by Lowndes (vol. I, p. 187), who however was unable to quote any copy sold by auction. Mr. Offor is also mistaken in considering the autograph signature on title-page as that of Bp. Morton.

824 Book of Common Prayer, with the Psalter; with Apocrypha and Psalms in Metre, with Music folio. Camb. T. Buck and R. Daniel, 1638

825 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 154), much soiled by use, sold with all faults blue morocco 4*to.* Camb. T. Buck and R. Daniel, 1639

826 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 163), corner of first leaf of Genesis torn off, and title to New Testament supplied from the edition of 1642 8*vo.* R. Barker, &c. 1639

827 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version, not in Lea Wilson, has titles (that of New Testament dated 1638), introductory leaves and end, but imperfect in Apocrypha, and several leaves torn and mended, sold with all faults, R. Barker, &c 1639—Downame (J.) Concordance to the Bible, 1639—Psalmes in Meeter, with Music, 1638 old morocco, with arms of Charles I. folio. in one vol.

BIBLES, TESTAMENTS, PSALTERS, &c.—continued.

828 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version, with Prayer-Book, Scripture Genealogies, and Downame's Concordance, not in Lea Wilson, ruled, imperfect, being made up by a later edition, but has engraved title to Bible, title to New Testament (dated 1638) and last leaves, sold with all faults folio. R. Barker, &c. 1639

829 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version, two editions, both imperfect, R. Barker, &c. 1639-41; & 5 others, imperfect 12*mo.* (7)

846 Psalmes, Englished both in Prose and Metre, with Annotations by H. Ainsworth (L. W. 105), with Music 8*vo. Amst.* 1644

847 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version, with Psalmes in Meter, 3 vol. in 1, fine copy in vellum
4*to. According to the copie printed for Roger Daniel, Printer to the Universitie of Cambridge, Ann. Dom.* 1645

A very rare edition, apparently totally unknown to Lea Wilson, Lowndes, Cotton, and other bibliographers. It was evidently printed abroad, and probably at Amsterdam. In 1 Tim. iv, 16, thy for the doctrine.

848 Bible Doctrine 24*mo.* 1646

849 Psalter, with Devotions, frontispiece, a few letters in part of preface cut out, not in Lea Wilson 12*mo.* 1646

850 Nouveau Testament, en Latin et en François, par les Docteurs Catholiques de Louvain 12*mo. Paris*, 1647

851 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version (L. W. 177), fine copy, ruled, in old English black morocco, ornamented sides, g. e. 8*vo. William Bentley*, 1648

Kilburne, in his "Dangerous Errors," praises this edition for being very correct. In 1 Tim. iv, 16, thy for the doctrine. At the end is bound up: "The whole Book of Psalmes in Meeter," with Music, printed by G. M. for the Companie of Stationers, 1646.

863 New Testament, Authorized Version, black letter, (L. W. 181), fine copy, calf gilt, 16*mo. Company of Stationers*, 1650

864 Novi Testamenti Libri omnes, Græce 12*mo.* R. Daniel, 1652

865 Downame (J.) Brief Concordance to the Bible, ruled, 4*to.* 1652

866 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version (L. W. 184), genuine edition, full of errors, short copy, blue morocco, g. e. by C. Murton 24*mo.* John Field, 1653

This edition is of great rarity, most of the copies having been seized and destroyed. In Matth. VI, 24, God is omitted; in John IX, 21, the words, or who hath opened his eyes, we know not, are left out; and in Rom. VI, 13, righteousness is substituted for unrighteousness.

867 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version (L. W. 184), ruled, portion of T t 3 and 4 in MS. and cut in the front margin, sold therefore not subject to collation, blue morocco, g. e. 24*mo.* John Field, 1653

Genuine edition, which is remarkable for the dangerous errors contained therein. One of the most extraordinary is that in 1 Cor. VI, 9, "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall inherit the kingdom of God." In consequence 7900 copies were seized and destroyed.

868 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version. Genuine Edition, with most of the Errors corrected (L. W. 185) red morocco, soiled copy 24*mo.* ib. 1653

869 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version (Lea Wilson, 185), a small portion of T t 3 torn off, old black morocco 24*mo.* John Field, 1653

This is the genuine edition of Field, in which the principal errors have been corrected by cancels. The omission of "God" in Matth. VI, 24, and many other faults, however, still remain.

870 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version (L. W. 185) old black morocco, with clasp 24*mo.* John Field, 1653

This is the genuine edition complained of to Parliament as abounding with errors. Most of these were corrected by printing cancels, but many still remain, e. g. "God" is omitted in Matth. VI, 24.

871 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version (L. W. 185) genuine edition, with errors corrected, fine copy, ruled, blue morocco, g. e. by C. Murton 24*mo.* John Field, 1653

Mr. Offor, in a MS. note, states that "this is the finest copy of the genuine Field's Bible, 1653, which I have ever seen."

872 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version (L. W. 187) the spurious edition (only part of Psalm I on Aa 4) but very correct, old morocco, with clasp 24*mo.* John Field, 1653

873 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version, unknown to Lea Wilson, probably printed in Holland, spurious edition, Psalm I to III on the same page 24*mo. John Field*, 1653

874 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version, two editions, wanting titles and ends, John Field, 1653 and 1658; and 7 others, Frgments of the same Editions 12*mo.* (9)

875 Bible (Holy), Authorized Version (Old Testament only), with J. Canne's notes fine copy, ruled, in old English red morocco, richly gilt, unknown to Lea Wilson 12*mo. Giles Calvert*, 1653

876 New Testament. Authorized Version (L. W. 185)
24*mo. John Field*, 1653
This edition is famous for its typographical errors. That in 1 Cor. VI, 9, is corrected.

877 New Testament. Authorized Version (L. W. 184), illustrated with engravings from some other work
VERY RARE, morocco, g. e. 24*mo. John Field*, 1653
Very nearly the whole impression of this edition was burnt by order of the House of Commons. The reason of its suppression was that gross blunders were exhibited therein, as a sample of which we need only point out, 1 Cor. VI, 9, "The unrighteous shall inherit the kingdom of God;" Rom. VI, 13, "Neither yield ye your members as instruments of righteousness unto sin;" 1 Tim. IV, 16, "thy" for "the doctrine," &c.

878 New Testament. Authorized Version (L W. 184)
the original edition, with very gross blunders, cut in the headline, sold with all faults 24*mo. John Field*, 1653
This edition was seized, and nearly the whole impression destroyed. As a specimen of the errors, see 1 Cor. VI, 9, where is printed "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall inherit the kingdom of God."

879 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version, not in Lea Wilson imperfect, but has title and end 24*mo. Evan Tyler*, 1654

880 New Testament, Authorized Version, with Paraphrase and Annotations by H. Hammond, D.D. folio. 1653
Thy for the doctrine, in 1 Tim. IV, 16.

881 Psalms in Meeter 24*mo. J. Field*, 1654

882 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 189) ruled, but stained, sold with all faults, calf
12*mo. John Field*, 1655
2 Cor. XIII, 6, is totally omitted, and "Thy" for "the doctrine," is printed 1 Tim. IV, 16. Kilburne, in his Dangerous Errors, says this edition contains 91 notorious faults.

883 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 189), imperfect old morocco 12*mo. John Field*, 1655

This is the edition mentioned by Kilburne as containing 91 notorious faults. This copy differs from that described by Lea Wilson, as it contains 2 Cor. XIII, 6, said to be omitted in his. In 1 Tim. IV, 16, is "thy" for "the doctrine."

884 Psalmes in Meeter
8*vo. A. M. for the Companie of Stationers*, 1655

885 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version, not in Lea Wilson fine copy, ruled, in old red morocco, covered with gold tooling, g. e. with silver bosses for clasps secured by a style
12*mo. John Field*, 1656

886 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 191)
calf 8*vo. Camb. John Field*, 1657

In Acts VI, 3, "Ye may appoint," instead of "we," and 1 Tim. IV, 16, "thy" for "the doctrine."

887 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 192), ruled
12*mo. John Field*, 1657

This edition, says Lea Wilson, is very incorrect. It is one of those in which 1 Tim. IV, 16, reads "thy doctrine." The New Testament is dated 1656.

888 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (1 Tim. IV, 16, Thy for the doctrine), John Field, 1657; New Test. dated 1656—Downame (J.) Concordance, W. Du-Gard, 1654—Psalms in Meeter, John Field, 1656 (L. W. 192)

891 Annotations upon all the Books of the Old and New Testament by the Assembly of Divines, 2 vol.
BEST EDITION folio. 1657

The Assembly in their note on 1 Tim. iv. 16, use thy for the doctrine.

892 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 195)
purple morocco, g. e. 24*mo. John Field*, 1658

This edition is supposed to have been printed in Holland. Although therefore spurious, it has the reputation of being extremely correct, whereas the genuine edition of the same year is notorious for the printer's blunders.

893 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 195), portion of A 3 and Dd 6 torn off, sold with all faults
24*mo.* John Field, 1658

This is the spurious edition supposed to have been printed in Holland, as remarkable for its extreme correctness as the genuine of the same date is for being exceedingly incorrect.

894 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 195), engraved title mended, morocco, g. e. 24*mo.* John Field, 1658

895 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 195)

896 Bible. Another copy (L. W. 195), ruled red morocco 24*mo.* idem, 1658

897 New Testament, Authorized Version (L. W. 195), spurious edition, but very correct, John Field, 1658—Psalms in Metre, id. 1658 24*mo.* in one vol.

898 Theological Concordance of the Synonymous Terms in the Holy Scriptures 8*vo.* J. Streater, 1658

899 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version, 2 vol. finely engraved title by Lombart, ruled old morocco, g. e. folio. Cambridge, John Field, 1659

This is the same edition as that subsequently issued, and dated 1660, with chorographical cuts by J. Ogilby, who probably had a certain number of copies taken off for his use. See Lea Wilson, No. 196. Acts vi, 3, has ye instead of we may appoint, and 1 Tim. iv, 16, thy instead of the doctrine.

901 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (L. W. 197), fine copy, ruled, with two portraits of R. Baxter prefixed blue morocco, g. e. 8*vo.* H. Hills and J. Field, 1660

According to a MS. note by Mr. Offor on fly-leaf "this was the study and pulpit Bible of that illustrious man RICHARD BAXTER, a Nonconformist Divine of most extensive acquirements." On the back of the title, in the autograph of R. Baxter, is written "My D^r^ Wife dyed May 13th, 1684, about 8 of the Clock on a Tuesday morning;" and below this (by one of his children), "My Father died March 9th, 1692." On the blank leaf at end is registered the birth and death of his daughter Elizabeth, having on the reverse the signature of Annie Baxter. As a memorial of the eminent Nonconformist this book is most interesting. In 1 Tim. iv, 16, is thy for the doctrine.

902 New Testament, Authorized Version (L. W. 198), soiled, sold with all faults 12*mo.* John Field, 1660

964 Bible (Holy) Authorized Version (not in Lea Wilson), in 2 vol.
fine copy, ruled, in old English black morocco, ornamented sides, g. e. 12*mo. Bill, Newcomb and Hills*, 1682
One of the most inaccurate Bibles ever published, almost every page teeming with errors, whole lines being often omitted. As a sample, Gen. ix. 5, at the hand of man omitted. Gen. xxi. 26, neither didst thou tell me omitted. Gen. xxx. 35, and all the brown among the sheep omitted. Deut. xxiv. ate her, instead of hate her. Esther vi. 2, kings instead of keepers. Jeremiah xiii. 27, adversaries instead of adulteries. Jerem. xvi. 6, glad instead of bald. Jerem. xviii. 21, swine for famine. Ezechiel xviii. 25, equal, instead of not equal. 1 Tim, iv. 16, thy for the doctrine. This copy has been carefully corrected throughout, in a neat handwriting, and these corrections seem to have been commenced on April 18, 1756, and concluded on 21 November, 1759.

[N.B. Where the Part is not described, it will be understood to be the First Part.]

1522 BUNYAN (John) PILGRIM'S PROGRESS from this World, to that which is to come, delivered under the similitude of a Dream, wherein is Discovered, the Manner of his setting out, his Dangerous Journey, and safe Arrival at the Desired Countrey, the Third Edition, with Additions, title-page and frontispiece in facsimile, and a few words and letters, on other leaves, in MS.
morocco extra, g. e. by Riviere 12*mo.* 1679
"This exceedingly rare little volume is the first complete edition of the Pilgrim's Progress. From page 171, 'Now I saw in my dream,' to 181, 'of a devouring fire,' first appeared in this third edition. It is the curiously casuistical conference between the friends of Mr. Bye-ends and the Pilgrims. This was the last addition that Bunyan made to the text of the First Part."
"The only copies that have been discovered are this and one sold by Mr. Leslie to the Rev. J. Horner."—Part of a long MS. note by Mr. Offor, who has given a very minute collation of this copy, pointing out the variations with other editions.

1523 Bunyan (J.) Pilgrim's Progress, Fourth Edition, with Additions, frontispiece engraved by R. W., two leaves, pages 143-6, are wanting, and the marginal notes are in some places cut into, morocco, g. e. 12*mo.* 1680

Usually considered the first book printed with moveable types, and undoubtedly the earliest with a date and names of printers. As the paginator has made a mistake in the numbering by marking folio LX twice, it would be difficult to give a correct list of the defects. For a complete copy there ought, however, to be 160 leaves, but as this contains only 118, there are consequently 42 deficient.

Unpublished Manuscript on Paper (the text of the Gospels in red ink), dedicated to Margaret Duchess of Austria, Regent of the Netherlands, and dated 19 September, 1520, russia folio. Ath en Haynault, 1520
This important Manuscript (402 leaves) is apparently in the author's autograph. In the Prologue he informs us that he has written the words of the Text in red letters, so that it may be read without the Commentary. This Text is a Translation of the four Gospels into French, made prior to any printed Version of the Scriptures in that language, and therefore peculiarly interesting to Collectors of the Sacred Writings. On the first page is an inscription to Madame Marguerite Archiduchesse d'Austrice, &c., having beneath the following verses:

Par sire julien fossetier
De don charles roy des romains
Cronicqueur et Indicher
Vous anoncerai soirs et mains
De hiesus saulveur des humains
La vie seule salutaire
Ayes moy dont souvent en mains
Je ne scai vostre salutaire

Je viens les frois mettre en brasier
Les carbons estains ratifier
Les arestes avant mener
Les fort endormis resueillier
Les demy mors vivifyer
Et aux tous mors vie doner.

On the reverse of this page are verses: "Au los de la saincte escripture; la devise de madame marguerite; Rondele sur ycelle and Soubrondele." An account of Fossetier will be found in Moreri, who mentions him as the author of this Life of Christ, and of a Chronique Margueritique. This Manuscript was formerly in the Monastic Library of St. Martin at Tournay.

cut off, a small portion of last leaf of Text (1741) defective, and part of Index wanting, else fine large copy in blue morocco extra, g. e. by Macintosh and Russell folio. John Daye, 1562-63

FIRST EDITION, of such extraordinary rarity that, according to Lowndes, "NO PERFECT COPY IS KNOWN." Passages contained in this edition were subsequently suppressed, more particularly some matters relating to the Protector Somerset. The woodcuts are represented as containing capital likenesses, and Bishop Bonner is reported to have said, when the cut representing him as whipping the Saints was shown him, "Plague take the fellow, how did he contrive to get so good a likeness." No other imperfection is known in this copy, but it will be sold as usual not subject to collation. Imperfect copies have sold from £39. to £56.

2451 Foxe (J.) Book of Martyrs, woodcuts
FIRST EDITION, another copy, wanting beginning and end, besides other leaves, and some leaves damaged by rats, sold with all faults folio. John Daye, 1562-63

2663 Higden (Ranulphe) Polycronicon, Englished by John de Trevisa, woodcuts
black letter, aa iii in facsimile, a few letters in X iiii to vii filled in by the pen, with a few wormed pages and slightly stained, morocco extra, g. e. by Riviere folio. Imprentyd at London in Southwarke by me Peter Treueris dwellynge in the sygne of the Wodows. In the yere of our lorde god. M.D.XXVI. the XXVII. day of July Besides the above imprint, with large woodcut on reverse, which, if genuine for this Polycronicon, would be a great curiosity and totally unknown to bibliographers, Mr. Offor has added a facsimile of the imprint as usually found: "Imprented in Southwerke by my Peter Treueris at ye expences of John Reynes, &c. 1527, the XVI daye of Maye." "Caveat emptor" is an old adage, and can be the only caution given in this case, for although the leaf containing printer's device and imprint, which is certainly from some book printed by Treveris (probably the Great Herbal) is real, no guarantee can be given that the large cut on the reverse (a repetition of that on title) is not a facsimile, although so inimitably executed as almost to defy detection. It will therefore be sold not subject to collation, although otherwise perfect.

black letter, morocco extra, g. e. extremely rare
folio. Prentyd at London by Wyllyam Rastell, 1532-33
The second part concludes with "Thus endeth the .VIII. boke," and that Lowndes is wrong, in asserting that this edition contains the ninth book, is confirmed by the following passage in the Table prefixed to the Workes printed in 1557: "Nota that the ninthe boke of the confutation which beginneth Nume. 812, was not before thys tyme in print."
